Dear Mr Saha

Thank you for your kind invitation to the Vivekananda Festival 2007: "Festival for Human Excellence" on 8th July 2007. I feel honoured to be asked to attend as a Guest of Honor, and the work that you are doing in North London to bring different faith communities together is invaluable. Unfortunately, I am afraid that I will be unable to attend the festival as I already have an appointment in my diary, which I am unable to change.

Many thanks again, and best of luck for a pleasant and successful afternoon.

Yours sincerely

David Lammy
